HANGED IN EFFICY

honor Hon. J. P. Finnery.

Last fall J. P. Fiannery of Gold HAGERMAN & SCHOOLING, Hill was placed in nomination for the assembly by the Republicana. By the result of the election Mr. Flannery was authorized to prefix "Hon." to his pane and in in the legislature for sixty days. He went to Carson, but seems not to have pleased his enstituents by his course there. At gainst since his return.

The feeling excited has increased The feeling excited has increased somewhat in intensity of late and cul minsted last evening. This morning those who were about early and passed up or down the road saw limned on the aky what appeared to be a corpse dangling from the tramway to the Justice dump and suspended directly ever the highway. It was a well-done effigy of Hon. J. P. Flannery

This was allowed to "pollute the air" for a while and was then taken down and placed on a cart for a bier to which were attached two goats and thus hearsed was started up the street. The boys were a little on their beer too and seemed to enjoy the thing too and seemed to enjoy the thing better the further they went with it, and so it passed up the hill over the Divide and into Virginia.

The pregramme is now to "wake" the effigy te-night at Fitzpatrick's saloon, in Lower Gold Hill, and to bury it to-morrow. The boys say Flannery went back on them and "fell down" in the legislature and they "set him up" again last night, and propose to stiffen his back bone for him.

Only Bluffing. [Silver Reef Miner.]

Two of our sporting fraternity, whom we will call Smith and Jones, Two of our sporting fraternity, whom we will call Smith and Jones, recently became engaged in game of poker with a big, raw-boned, green-looking stranger, and, as sometimes will happen when professionals are playing, the stranger found himself looking at four queens, while Smith had four kings and Jones calmly regarded four acces—the best hand. The betting was pretty lively, and finally the stranger called for a "sight," as all his meney was up, and said he had four queens. Smith said, "No good, I've got four kings." "The hell you have!" yelled the stranger, and let fly his right fist, about the size of a peck of walnuts, plumb between Smith's eyes, knocking him across the room. "What have you got?" sneered the stranger to Jones. With a glance at that big fist, Jones hastened to reply, "Oh, I haven't got anything, I was only biuffing!" The stranger raked in the "pot," and as he departed muttered, "You can't ring in any cold decks on me."

Will it be Constructed? ·[Truckes Republican of To-day.]

We mean the narrow guage rail-road from Reno to Virginia City. Justines the Virginia people are begin-ning to appreciate the necessity for construction of such a road. The construction of such a road. The grassing grinding policy of the V. & T. monopoly is beginning to have its effect. We, in the Truckee basin, would be greatly benefited by the proposed road. With just rates of fares and freights, Truckee dealers could successfully compete in wood and lumber trade with those from Carson and Lake Tahoe. At present they are almost entirely stut out from the Virginia market. The cost of the proposed narrow gague will of the proposed narrow gague will not exceed $400,000. That amount eught to be secured readily in Virginia City, Reno and Truckee. A little energy and grit on the part of merchants and dealers will secure this road, and it will be found to the a very profitable inventions. very profitable investment.

The anti-Chinese meeting at Hurd's hall on Wednesday evening was largely ettended. Signife of number of spirited speeches were made and much enthusiasm was manifested. The speakers gave their views regarding what measures should be adopted to get rid of the Chinese. Most of them deprecated violence, but urged unity of action and a resort to all lawful measures within their power to force unity of action and a resort to all lawful means within their power to force the Celestials to go. A committee was appointed to prepare a constitution and by laws, and to provide for the thorough organization of an anti-Chinese citib. A mass meeting will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at which time the committee will make their reports. Every one is invited to attend and bring their friends.

Well-Deserved Punishment. [Virginia Chronicle, 4th.]

(Virginia Chronicle, 4th.)

Last, evening about half past 7 o'clock two young ladies were rassing Justice Knox's court, on B street, when a drunken rowdy addressed them in language too foul to print. A young man who overheard the remark walked in to the lonfer and dealt him about a dezen blows in the face bruising him terribly. Under ordinaty circumstances at trunken man would have been protected from such an assault, but some of the bystanders who anderstood the situation prevented starference and the general verdict was that he only gut his deserts. The roung man who administered the demark punishment was arrested for evenit, and will be tried in Justice.

PUBLIC SENTIMENT ON THE PEX-

We are informed that several eltizens of Reno went to Carson yester day and to-day to confer with Governor Kinkead apon the bullion penally bill. It is the sentiment of every man with whom we have talked that the bill is utterly wrong, and does not deserve a moment's censideration This feeling is very deep and strong and so far as we can learn it is uni-versal all over the state. The people or-gaged for every branch of business, mercantile, manufacturing, farming, mining, railroading, stock raising, and all kinds of pursuits, feel the same way. The opinion is that there is nothing to be said in favor of discriminating against all other interests in favor of two great mines that are unwilling to pay the smallest fraction of their profits for the protection of the law and the support of the government. If these men who have taken out of Nevada's rocks, meney enough to place them among the richest, if not the richest men in the world, if they are to be exempted by govern-ment from contributing to its support such a government is not worth supporting, and every preperty ewner ought to refuse to pay his tax, and protect his property with a shot-gun. Another sentiment, which finds expression among all classes, is that the action of the legislature in throwing the responsibility of this measure upon the governor's shoulders was either cowardly, or treasonable. If members feared to stand up to the principles of the platform on which they were elected, or if they parted with those principles for coin, they certainly showed themselves very poor stuff; and in either case, they may consider themselves very safely laid away on the shelf politically.

The California papers are endeavering to interest the country people in nut-bearing trees. There seems to be no reason why Nevada should not stir in this matter. If she cannot have the orange, lemon and eucalyptus she could have the walaut, hickorysut and other valuable trees. These all all the trouble and ten times more than it would take to introduce them. The black wafnut would grow handsomely all over the meadews and would soon bear delicious crops. The Representing the wood brings enormous prices all over II the coast, even the roots are dug up in Kansas to be used for veneering. Bickery wood is brought around the horn for angles, tangues, shafts, etc. and ship loads of it are used every year. In fifteen years our boys could be picking nuts off the trees right here, we did when we were boys. What is berhood without hickory nutting An emply sham. No wender Califor his is full of boodlums. The chestnut is another valuable tree, both in crop and fibre. The ash might flourish in in this climate and is an exceedingly valuable tree. From it the best fork, hos, and shevel handles are made; light, stiff, and strong. Somehody with land could make himself a public henefactor very cheaply, if he would but a few such seeds in the

The Osborne Montaly says: Through a friend who has traveled extensively in Peru, General Le Duc, United States Commissioner of Agriculture, obtained information which induced him to procure from that country a quantity of potatoes for seed, which are pronounced to be whelly unlike anything produced here, in the delicious quality of their flavor. A few of these were cooked in the matical laboratory and were found to be as yellow as butter, and vastly appearing in flavor to any now grown in the United States. The seed polaters will be judiciously distributed, and if care is used to mature, the crop, and sawe the entire nurs, the crop, and save the entire product for seed, for two or three residences Depairs subjects will be a blessing to the people of the Nevada potato, and if all the best varieties were experimented with, we might perhaps find some change take place which would give the torid a new reality. Our new cases, at least, would be benefitted by this enlightened course. EDITORIAL NOTES.

Inside of the wrapper which con-sins the Salt Lake Herald there comes a small slip of red paper. It is always the same color, same size, and is always in the same place. It has continued so for months, Why this is, is something beyond ur ken. Long have we pondered upon the mystery, but it baffles and defies us. Still it comes, this slip of red paper and nothing more. Have we been singled out for destruction by the Danite of the Herald, and do these harmless looking bits of paper contain some subtile Latter Day poison, some new and secret appliance of the blood atonement dispensation? We await the end with christian fortitude.

This fine weather would be good for a game of feot-ball on the Plaza. We would like to see the business men all along the street take a little more play and less constant grinding at the mill. They are too busy for base ball, or any games requiring study; but we are not joking when we say that a little foot-ball on the Plaza would liven them up and give the dyspeptic ones an appetite, such PRACTICAL GUNSMITH, as they have not known for many a day. All work and no play makes Jack a dull bey. A kick or two at a good soft ball would be quite to our liking, but for a corn we carry on the north-east corner of the right foot.

The bullion tax business has until Inesday evening next to run. The constitution provides that any bill which is not vetoed and the objection filed with the secretary of state within ten days after adjournment. Sundays and legal helidays excluded, coomes a law, the same as if it had been signed by the governor.

The publishers of the GAZETTE take leasurein presenting their subscribers the first paper ever printed by steam in Reno. Take it bome and lay it away. It marks an era in the history of our town. As soon as the sawdust and chips are cleared away we shall appoint a day and invite all our friends up to see us

What a sarcasm to dub the most of the members of the ninth legislature "Henorable." The majority were ess henorable than theives. They didu't even divide their stealings

he California Paper Mills Where the "Gazette" Gets Its Paper.

Up to six months ago there was no such thing as printing paper to be had except by importing it from over the As soon as possible after the mills at Stockton began to turn out enough to make it safe to depend upon, the GAZETTE, believing in the good old doctrine of BUILDING UP HOME INSTITUTIONS. and practicing as well as preaching the development of manufactures for the western world, made arrangements to use their paper, even if it should be mere expensive. The change must have been neticed by all readers of the paper, and the present body certainly reflects credit upon our Cal-ifornia paper mill. It is still a little transparent; cuts and large type show through somewhat; but this will be remedied by the introduction of more wood into the pulp, as soon as the propertion can be established. Last week a reporter was instructed to visit Stockton and give a description of the works for the benefit of the readers of the saver. this paper, as well as to spread a knowledge of this worthy institution. The works are half a mile south of Stockton, near the Nevada insane asylum. Both fine and coarse paper are manufactured. To make wrapping paper 3000 psunds of wheat straw are put into a large tank, three barrels of liquid lime are then poured over it, and it is steamed for twelve hours. It then smells exactly like the hominy your grandmether used to make of yellow corn and ash lys. This mass is next divided into 600 pound lots, and goes to the "beater" where for eight hours it is washed and ground into pulp by revolving cyl-inders armed with knives. Alum and rosin fer sizing are added here.

is a large oblong tank divided by a partition extending through the centre $200. to within three feet of each end. The knives are on one side about half way the length of the tank. A stream of white pulp about three feet deep and lots 1 and 2 in blo wide moves around and around in dition, for $100. this channel, at a pace about half as fast as a man would walk, and is one of the most peculiar looking things about the place. A pipe carries the pulp down stairs into the stuff chest, where water is added to make it liquid, when it is pumped up to the paper for $350.

Printing paper, such as you hold in your hand, is com-posed of 20 per cent straw, 30 of old paper and 50 of rags. The rags are cooked with seda ash in an immense dumped into a drain and the liquor drawn off. The straw, rags and pa-per are all bleached before mixing, by lime and acid, and drained again prevent turning yellow. The rags are first a dark, rich brown, changing gradually to an exquisite shade of lavgradually to an exquisite shade of lavender, then to pure white. When mixed the pulp takes the course of the straw pulp described above. The capacity of the mill is limited by the number of vats, beaters, etc. There are at present twelve heaters, and the product amounts to six tons per day, of which four is newspaper and two wrapping. The market is good and prices fair.

A S A O Lumber.

One of the most serious drawbacks builders have experienced has been the great scarcity of lumber. This has been occasioned by the recent severe snowstorm at Truckee, which Coat's Restaurant.

> Who will be the first man to give Reso a first class opera house? There is room for a good one in Rene. A large class of citizens are intelligent and appreciative theatre goars. Since Carson has a better building she gets all the best companies. Smith's was a very good building but its glory has departed. The pavillon has the making of a splendid room with a little expense. Even a small mevable stage would make it a very good place for a show and if pagas were taken it might be made second to none in the state.

Herra Valley Items

From O. B Doly who arrived from Randolph, Sierra Valley, this morting, a GAZETEE reporter obtained the following items:

Snow feli at Randolph and Sierrarills last week to a depth of two feet.

The outlook for the present seaso around Loyalton is not considered very flattering. None of the farmers in that section will put in crops, as they are afraid that the grasshoppers will take them as they did last year. It was thought that the insects which had been hatched out by the pleasant weather previous to the big storm would perish, but it seems they survive. The persentage that hatched was small. J. E. Danip is putting up a fine dwelling house between Randelph and Sierraville. All the sawmills at the head of valley will start up in a few days, and as soon as the roads between there and Reno are in condition teamsters will commence hauling lumber to Reno.

The winze yesterday struck a pocket of melted sails which had run together and came out large chunks of solid iron without a sign of their original shape. J. F. Cookes will commence the erection of a fine twe-story building on his let, corner Virginia street and Commercial Rew, semetime nex week. It will be 25x60 feet, and will be built entirely of redwood. The lower portion will be rented for business purposes, and the upper will be used as a lodging house or for offices. There was a slight disurbance in Chinatown last night. One, Lung Ah Chung, had a little set-to with Miss Ah Gong, a fair but frail Chinese maiden. The cause of the difficulty was a matter of two dellars and seventy cents. Miss Ah G. claimed that Chung Ah Long owed ber three dellars, while the latter contended that thirty cents would balance the books. She insisted on having three dollars, and to make her argument more convincing, fired a panful of boiling water on the unfortunate celes He retaliated with a stick o wood, but before she was thoroughly convinced another actor appeared. was Ah Sam, who had a conceder right to the affections of Miss Gong backed by an ugly looking six-shooter Chung Ah Lung beat an inglorious retreat. He ran, (it would be mere appepriate to say he flew) to the court house and asked to be locked up for protection. A warrant was issued and he was taken before Justice Bow ker. He plead guilty to a charge of assault and the Judge fined him fifteen dollars. He was given till 7 o'cleck to raise the money. Miss Gong, was slightly scratched about the face, but not scriously injured.
